Happy New Year!

I hope you had a wonderful time over the holidays. Larry and I had a lovely Christmas Eve with his Mom, then took off for Saskatoon to spend time with my brother and my dad. Dad's dementia is advancing so I try to get out to see him as often as I can. It's interesting to see what he remembers and what he doesn't. The old stories of when he and Mom met are the ones he loves to tell ... he's a true romantic. But remembering that Christmas has come and gone, or what city we're in can be another story. I'm learning to practice patience and keep a sense of humour and I'm so grateful he is still here with us. We came home from Saskatoon to houseguests from BC and let's just say there was a lot of good food (and good wine) consumed 😊. We're so fortunate to have friends who are "chosen family" who love us (and our dogs of course!) just as we are.

As you look ahead to your new year, I hope you've already set aside time to connect with those nearest and dearest to you. Here's to a fantastic 2019!
